

WHO

The RUTH exhibit features San Diego County Holocaust survivors and their stories throughout San Diego County. The exhibit focuses on Holocaust survivors alive today. The exhibit is divided into two parts, RUTH and TRUTH. RUTH tells the stories of the living survivors. TRUTH shares the experience of that happened in the Holocaust.

ABOUT

Exhibit curator, Sandra Scheller is the daughter of Holocaust survivors. Her mother Ruth Sax, survived three concentration camps including Auschwitz, faced Dr. Mengele 6 times, and used soup water to bathe in. Her father fled because of the Nazis invading his hometown.

Sandra is the author of Try To Remember Never Forget and documentary with the same name.

She is the recipient of the San Diego Academia Teaching Award, creator of Art From The Holocaust at Comic-Con, Rotary Peacemaker recipient and is a USC Shoah Foundation interviewer.

She has received numerous medals of honor from the different branches of the military for educating troops about the Holocaust.

Sandra received an Honorary Degree from Southwestern College as a Holocaust educator and peace activist. In her spare time she travels to numerous Holocaust museums researching her facts and information.

An excellent experience for all ages.

RUTH Remember Us The Holocaust is a wonderful experience at any age. Young students will learn about the Holocaust while others learn to appreciate living in a free country.

Sandra will be at the exhibit each Thursday from 10:30-2:30pm. For a personal tour of the exhibit or to have Sandra speak at your school or event contact:
